

I find it ironic that the NAB is trying to protect their earnings by restricting XM & Sirius from local weather & traffic. I would like someone to protect my earnings, which pays for XM or Sirius, and let the companies give me the best possible product for MY money. That's how capitalism works, right?